Absolute errors vs coefficient degree for the 256×256 Forsythe matrix with $\nu = 2^{-33}$. Both matrix and target precision are `float64_t`. The multiprecision `cpoly` followed the schedule 113,120,128,136 ie the realtive errors plotted here correspond to La Budde's method with 136 bits of floating point precision.